

Library services offer a range of practical support for people with a vision or print impairment, so they can access reading and print materials in a variety of formats including:

- Large print
- Giant print
- Braille
- Audio/spoken word
- eAudiobooks
- eBooks
- eNewspapers
- eMagazines
- Tactile books

Services are available direct through the library or via a range of specialist providers.

A close-up photograph of an elderly man with white hair, smiling broadly and showing his teeth. He is wearing a maroon V-neck sweater over a light-colored collared shirt. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting.

Want to find out more? Ask a member of the library team!

Organisations who support the vision and print impaired community include:

Calibre Audio Library is a national charity providing a subscription-free service of unabridged audiobooks for adults and children who are unable to access standard print.
www.caliberaudio.org.uk

ClearVision is a postal lending library of children's books designed to be shared by visually impaired and sighted children and adults. www.clearvisionproject.org

Living Paintings is a charity who design, create and publish tactile books, with audio for blind and partially sighted people distributed through their FREE postal library.
www.livingpaintings.org

RNIB Library has over 60,000 items for people to borrow, including audiobooks, braille and accessible music. www.rniblibrary.com

Library staff can help you find the right resources. Just ask!

